

4

History Week

Public Lectures

by Distinguished Visiting Historians

Department of History
Sir George Williams Faculty of Arts

Wednesday, November 17th

8:30 p.m. (H762) Professor Peter Waite, Dalhousie University, Halifax.

"Chartered Libertine? A Case Against Sir John A. Macdonald And Some Answers"

Professor Waite has published several studies concerned with parliamentary debates during Canada's early years. His most recent work is a biography of Canada's first prime minister, John A. Macdonald: his life and world .

Lectures are free, and are held in the Hall Building, 1455 de Maisonneuve Boul. West.

